

PASSING THE BALL. The fair bathers on the sands of Brighton Beach, try a new game as they pass the huge ball along with their feet. The group is made up of some of the best swimmers in the United States. Keystone View Co.

MR. AND MRS. OWEN MOORE. Part of their honeymoon was spent at Bayside, L. I. The former husband of Mary Pickford married Miss Kathryn Perry, his leading lady, in the movies. Underwood & Underwood

THE CHEF AND QUEEN MARY. Chester is the chef in the famous picture by Sir William Orpen. He is conversing with Queen Mary and the Duke of Connaught. International

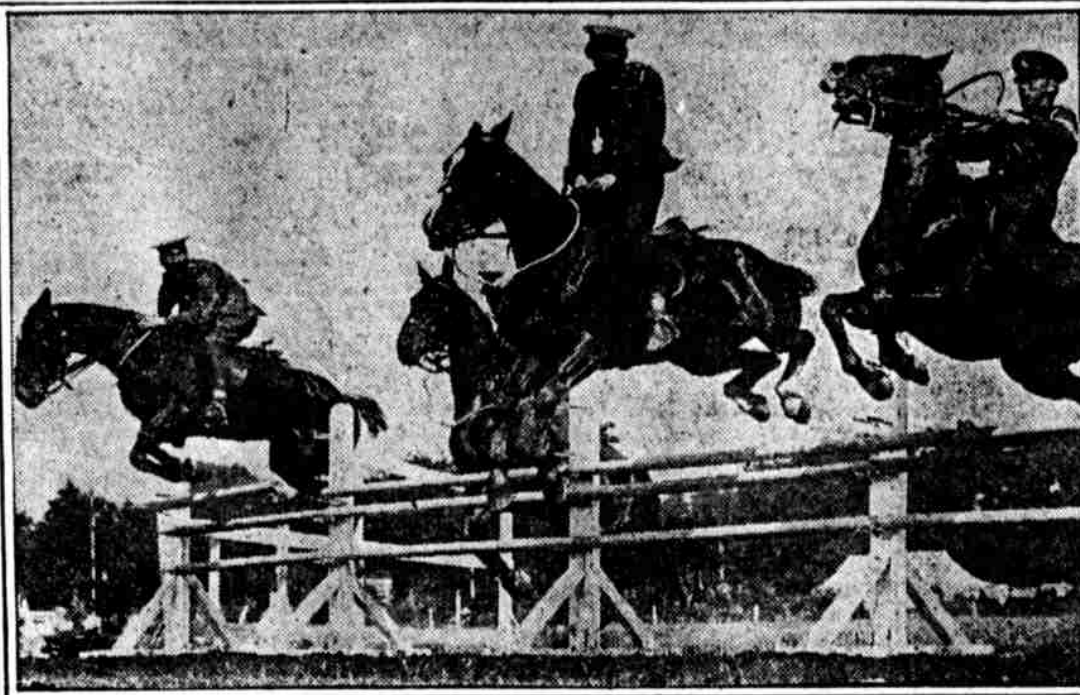

TWO FAMOUS LADS. Horace A. Wade, eleven years old, author of several books (left), interviews Samuel Rzeschewski, the chess wizard of Poland. U. & L.

WATCHING. Superintendent of Police Mills sees his men work in new gas-bomb tests. Ledger Photo Service

JOCK HUTCHISON, the Chicago golfer, has been picked to win the open golf championship of the United States. C. N. P.

JUMPING CONTEST. Members of the Fifth Brigade of the Aldershot Command, snapped as they go over the bars in the annual horse show at Aldershot, England. Three of the horses did well, but the fourth horse balked. Photo Illus. Co.

NEWSPAPER MEN BEAT ACTORS. That is, they did in this baseball game, played at Bayside, L. I. The batter is Jim Corbett, ex-champion of heavyweight fighters. Wide World Photo

MISS HEATHER THATCHER has been in New York watching a play she will head in London. U. & L.

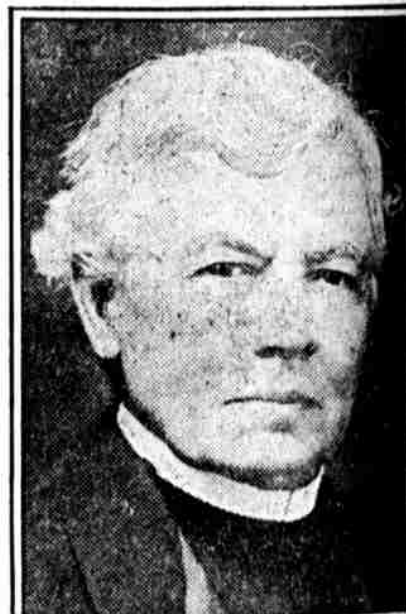

NEW STYLES. Two of the new types of footwear found in the annual Philadelphia footwear exhibit at the Bellevue-Stratford. On the left is the Babette sandal. The other shoe is known as the Sunburst. Ledger Photo Service

A BATTERY. Ray Steinader, pitcher, and A. Spohrer, captain and catcher of the North Phillies, one of the best amateur baseball teams in this city. Steinader's last win was over the J. & J. Dobson team in a fast twilight game. Ledger Photo Service

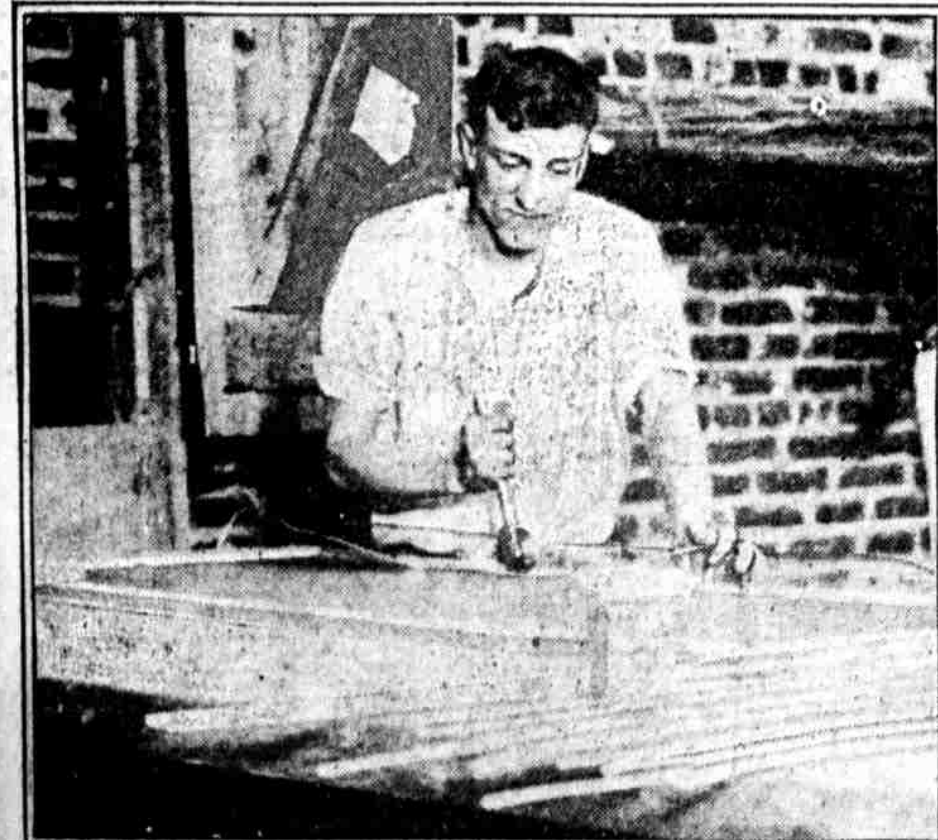

KEEPING COOL. Mrs. Anthony Drexel, Jr., and her two children snapped while out for a stroll at Newport, R. I., where they are spending July and August. Central News Photo

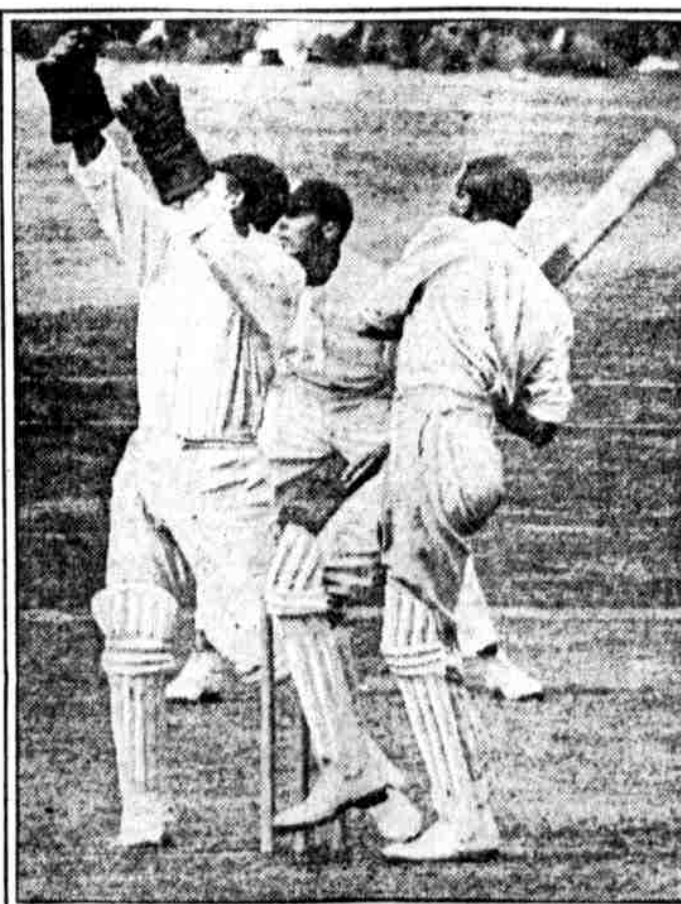

BISHOP JOHN W. HAMILTON will head world conference of Methodist Church in London. Central News Photo

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ADOLPH SCHUSTER, 1926 Bonitz street, wiring the frames of window screens in the factory of Thomas J. Malia, 228 Mentor street. Schuster wires and finishes seventy-five screens a day. Ledger Photo Service

CRICKET. English and Australian players at Leeds. Gregory, an Australian, has just skied the ball. The British wicket keeper is ready to catch it. Central News Photo

MAIL!

RAY G. BLEIL, 3058 Hartville street, has served eight years. Route: Eleventh to Twelfth; Market to Arch street. Ledger Photo Service

THE McCALL SISTERS. There will be big doings next Saturday at Wildwood when the Westinghouse Electric Company's girls play baseball. Lucy McCall (left), pitches for the "Beauties" and Florence McCall for the "Ponches".

